And all our very generous panel members thank you for sharing your wisdom and experience with us.

The Gippsland Health Summit is inspired by Tim Johnson who died of cancer in 2011, just shy of his 42nd birthday.

We acknowledge all patients and their families who teach us every day about caring for each other. All members of the planning group have stories to tell about when caring for someone in their role as doctor, psychologist, physiotherapist, family member or policy maker, optimal healing was achieved and celebrated. We all have stories of the reverse too.

The Gippsland Health Summit aims to enhance the experience of working inside the health system, and that of entering the system as a patient or carer. We acknowledge the wonderful work already done by everyone involved in health care across Gippsland and hope to

Thank you for joining us today and for completing the feedback form.
